

CASTLE

ON THE HUDSON

Ode to Tarrytown's Castle on the Hudson

Presented to Castle on the Hudson by Cindy Tether

A great fan of the Castle and Equus...

High on a hill, away from the crowd,
Sits a lady so fair, so grand and so proud...
I speak of the Castle of world renown,
Overlooking the Hudson in Tarrytown.
With elegance, beauty and plenty of space,
It's Heaven on Earth! It's a marvelous place!
The sculpture, the fountains, the food and the wine...
One way to describe it is: "Simply Divine!"
The soups and the salads, the entrées and cakes ~
The Castle, the Castle has got what it takes!
From the North to the South, from the East to the West,
The Castle's fine service is simply the best!
Imagine yourself as a King or a Queen...
The Castle's the place, if you know what I mean!
The Castle stands ready to fill every need,
Every wish, every whim, every notion, indeed!
For a morning of tennis, to swim or play chess,
Should you come to the Castle? The answer is "Yes!"
Oh, the marble, the crystal, the turrets and towers...
The silk and the satin, the linens, the flowers!
Where the Palisades rise to the sky that's so clear,
It's a beautiful spot all times of the year!
Summer and Spring, Winter and Fall...
You must go to the Castle! You must try them all!
So pack up your bags, but leave room for me,
'Cause the Castle's the place where I want to be!
